

BrisStyle Inc. Code of Conduct

The BrisStyle Inc. Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behaviour that are expected of all members of BrisStyle Inc., including the way the BrisStyle Management Committee perform their duties.

The BrisStyle Management Committee has the right to revoke a member's membership should they not comply with the BrisStyle Inc. Code of Conduct and/or Policies and Procedures. The BrisStyle Committee's decision is final.

Following are the standards and expectations for all BrisStyle Inc. members:

- Act honestly and in good faith.
- Nurture an environment where character, self-esteem and humour are freely expressed and celebrated.
- Recognise and encourage the uniqueness of each member's individual contribution.
- Encourage all members to develop and enhance their individual skills and capabilities.
- Treat all members, including the BrisStyle Management Committee, with courtesy, respect and sensitivity to their rights and provide all necessary and appropriate assistance as needed.
- Encourage all members to value their performance and not just their results or participation.
- Strive to obtain value for members' money spent and avoid waste and extravagance in the use of resources.
- Defamatory remarks by any BrisStyle member against a fellow member or any part of BrisStyle as a whole, including any BrisStyle stakeholder, will be deemed as inappropriate and a breach of BrisStyle's Policies and Procedures and Code of Conduct.
- Whilst promoting BrisStyle and any BrisStyle event only the approved supplied logos and graphics may be used in the manner they were authorised.
